February 2016

Cabin Fever?

The cure? Get to your nearby library! There's entertainment, people to see, kids' programs to eliminate the "antsies," and BOOKS to read! Use the Kindles, Launchpads, computers, and check out music. Our outstanding kids' programs not only educate your child, but are a fun experience for both of you.

Teens will have a great time in February at several programs featuring stop animation, pour painting, and tape art, or college life hacks in Seymour. The Silent Library program is at the Crothersville and Medora libraries.

Adults will enjoy craft and writing times at the Seymour Library, and movies for all ages are on tap, showing on Saturdays in February. There are also family and kids' crafts in Crothersville and Medora.

Charles Moman will present an updated program in Seymour on his most recent visit to Auschwitz and his work at the Terre Haute, Indiana, Candles Holocaust Museum & Education Center.

Additional Discovery Playstations were funded by the SIHO Endowment Fund at the Community Foundation of Jackson County.
