2019 Reading Camp

An innovative outreach project of Lutheran Outdoor Ministries
Indiana-Kentucky

Lutheran Hills — June 9-14 (entering grades 3-4-5-6)

Lake Luther — July 14-19 (entering grades 3-4-5-6)

Lutherwald — July 28-August 2 (entering grades 3-4-5-6)

There are children everywhere who are in danger of “at-risk futures” because they are unable to read at a proficient level. Reading Camp Director, Cleo Swager recruits and organizes a group of volunteer professionals who provide reluctant and struggling readers with the opportunity to improve their reading skills.

READING CAMP is a true camp experience that doesn’t look or feel like school. The setting, approach, and materials are new to the children who participate. During the morning sessions, each child receives individual and small group instruction in reading material of their choice and is encouraged to develop a love for the written word. The rest of the day is filled with fun outdoor camp activities led by college-aged counselors—swimming, canoeing and kayaking, group games, hikes and evening campfire programs. READING CAMP is truly a “failure free” experience.

Reading Camp is free!

The cost of the camp is underwritten by generous donors, special offerings, fundraising project, and the voluntary gifts of grateful parents.
