POETRY WITH INDIANA'S POET LAUREATE

Monday, 4/6, 5 pm

Celebrate National Poetry Month with us! We're excited to welcome Indiana's Poet Laureate, Curtis L. Crisler, to our library. A celebrated poet, author, and professor at Purdue University Fort Wayne, Curtis writes with a vivid voice that explores community, history, and the human experience. Don't miss this opportunity to experience poetry from one of Indiana's leading literary voices. This program will be held upstairs. Sponsored by Indiana Humanities, Indiana Author Awards, and the Friends of the Library.

Registration required by 4/2.

Limit 40*

BACK TO YOUR ROOTS - VISUAL ART

5/1-5/30

Celebrate America's 250th Anniversary through art. Create a painting that reflects your view of being American, what being American means to you, or your perspective on America's past, present, or future. Approved artwork will be displayed in a community gallery exhibit at the Seymour, Crothersville, and Medora libraries, highlighting diverse voices and perspectives. Stop by one of our three libraries and grab a painting kit, while supplies last. This was made possible by the Indiana Arts Commission.

All ages

HEALING THROUGH WRITING

Wednesday, 5/6, 5 pm

Discover how writing can be a powerful tool for emotional healing during Mental Health Awareness Month with writer Gabrielle Esposito. With guided prompts, you'll explore and express your feelings while gaining lasting techniques you can carry with you beyond the workshop.
